

Affiliate Manager

Netboost Media part of Stride Gaming is a successful global online gaming company. We are currently looking for an experienced Online Affiliate Manager with outstanding negotiation skills.

Key responsibilities:

- Identifying new business opportunities in the European market for our company's different acquisition channels including online, mobile and social channels;
- Initiating communication and negotiating with potential affiliates;
- Managing initial contact with the affiliates and potential advertising networks;
- Managing monthly activity plan, budget and campaigns;
- Negotiating and evaluating affiliate sites according to different KPI's;
- Participating in professional conferences and business meetings abroad;
- Ensuring the compliance of responsible gaming protocols;
- Any other duties as required by the company.

Requirements:

- Experience as an affiliate manager for at least 2 years – must;
- BA in economics/business management/industrial management – advantage;
- Strong negotiation, networking and business development skills;
- Strong experience and understanding of online marketing and acquisition channels in European market;
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team;
- Ability to work under pressure, in a goal-oriented environment and bring results;
- High motivation and dedication, eager and proactive;
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills in English – must;
- Excel - good level;
- Experience in online gaming industry - a significant advantage.

Personal Attributes:

A confident individual with a friendly personality, drive, energy and enthusiasm together with a strong personal commitment to the delivery of high standards in a timely, efficient and friendly manner who works in alignment with the Netboost Media Ltd policies and procedures and values.

To apply, please send your CV to jobs@netboostmedia.com - Job #210